THE ADAMS-WALLACE JEWELRY

SINCE it is somewhat unusual in public auction sales of valuable jewelry from a single private estate to find as large a number of similar-type pieces as are represented in the present sale, it is appropriate that the public be acquainted with the background of the Adams-Wallace family, to show the part it played in bringing this about.

Elizabeth E. Wallace Adams died last January at the Hotel Plaza, New York, where she had lived for thirty years. She was eighty years old. Her husband, Dr John L. Adams, prominent ear, nose and throat specialist, died in 1914. Mrs Adams was the youngest of four children of Margaret C. and Francis B. Wallace, wealthy banker and stockbroker. The Wallaces resided for many years in the brownstone mansion at the northeast corner of 38th Street and Madison Avenue, in the heart of the then exclusive and fashionable Murray Hill section. According to Joseph S. Johnston, executor of Mrs Adams' estate and her personal attorney for many years before she died, the Wallace family was addicted to the pleasant habit of exchanging articles of precious-stone jewelry, usually made to order and of the finest quality, on anniversaries, holidays and other commemorative occasions. It is not difficult to imagine the size of the valuable accumulation of brooches, rings, bracelets, necklaces, stickpins and so forth which could result when four ladies of wealth, and the male members of their family, remembered each other during half a century with such tangible tokens of affection.

Mrs Wallace died in 1892, nine years after her husband; daughters Margaret F. J. and Mary C. Wallace died between 1900 and 1906; in 1926, Francis L. the only son of Mr Adams, died. Except for the jewelry owned by Helen Wallace Swann, the fourth daughter, who died in 1928, the late Mrs Adams, the youngest child, inherited all the jewelry of her father, her mother and her two maiden sisters. The present sale comprises all the jewelry inherited by Mrs Adams, as well as the large number of pieces acquired by her during her lifetime. Many of the pieces bear monograms of various members of the family; and many are dated, the earliest inscribed 1872, the latest 1919. With few exceptions, as far as can be learned, the jewelry was purchased from Tiffany & Co., Jaques & Marcus, Theodore B. Starr, Black, Starr & Frost, T. Kirkpatrick & Company, Howard & Company and Marcus & Company. Many of the original leather cases, with gold-lettered presentation inscriptions, accompany the pieces.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

The property listed in this catalogue will be offered and sold subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The word "Galleries", wherever used in these Conditions of Sale, means the Parke-Bernet Galleries, Inc.

2. The Galleries has exercised reasonable care to catalogue and describe correctly the property to be sold, but it does not warrant the correctness of description, genuiness, authenticity or condition of said property.

3. Unless otherwise announced by the auctioneer at the time of sale, all bids are to be for a single article even though more than one article is included under a numbered item in the catalogue. If, however, the articles under any one numbered item are designated as a "Lot" then bids are to be for the lot irrespective of the number of articles described in such item.

4. The highest bidder accepted by the auctioneer shall be the buyer. In the event of any dispute between bidders, the auctioneer may, in his discretion, determine who is the successful bidder, and his decision shall be final; or the auctioneer may reoffer and resell the article in dispute.

5. Any bid which is not commensurate with the value of the article offered, or which is merely a nominal or fractional advance over the previous bid, may be rejected by the auctioneer, in his discretion, if in his judgment such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

6. The name and address of the buyer of each article, or lot, shall be given to the Galleries immediately following the sale thereof, and payment of the whole purchase price, or such part thereof as the Galleries may require, shall be immediately made by the purchaser thereof. If the foregoing condition, or any other applicable condition herein, is not complied with, the sale may, at the option of the Galleries, be cancelled, and the article, or lot, reoffered for sale.

7. Unless the sale is advertised and announced as an unrestricted sale, or a sale without reserve, consignors reserve the right to bid.

8. Except as herein otherwise provided, title will pass to the highest bidder upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter the property is at the purchaser's sole risk and responsibility.

9. Articles sold and not paid for in full and not taken by noon of the day following the sale may be turned over by the Galleries to a carrier to be delivered to a storehouse for the account and risk of the purchaser, and at his cost. If the purchase price has not been so paid in full, the Galleries may either cancel the sale, and any partial payment already made shall thereupon be forfeited as liquidated damages, or it may resell the same, without notice to the buyer and for his account and risk, and hold him responsible for any deficiency.

10. If for any cause whatsoever any article sold cannot be delivered, or cannot be delivered in as good condition as the same may have been at the time of sale, the sale will be cancelled, and any amount that may have been paid on account of the sale will be returned to the purchaser.

11. Unless purchased for resale, the buyer will be required to pay the Federal Excise Tax equivalent to 20 per centum of the price for which sold on jewelry, clocks, silver, gold, furs, etc. However, articles of these categories sold for certain classes of consignors are exempt from this tax. Items in this catalogue subject to the Federal Excise Tax are designated by an asterisk (*).

12. Unless exempt from the payment thereof, the buyer will also be required to pay the New York City sales tax of 2 per centum of the pirce for which all articles are sold.

13. The Galleries, subject to these Conditions of Sale and to such terms and conditions as it may prescribe, but without charge for its services, will undertake to make bids for responsible parties approved by it. Requests for such bidding must be given with such clearness as to leave no room for misunderstanding as to the amount to be bid and must state the catalogue number of the item and the name or title of the article to be bid on. If bids are to be made on several articles listed as one item in the catalogue, the request should state the amount to be bid on each article, unless the item contains the notation "Lot", in which case the request should state the amount to be bid "For the Lot". The Galleries reserve the right to decline to undertake to make such bids.

14. The Galleries will facilitate the employment of carriers and packers by purchasers but will not be responsible for the acts of such carriers or packers in any respect whatsoever.

15. These Conditions of Sale cannot be altered except in writing by the Galleries or by public announcement by the auctioneer at the time of sale.
